Cold-Case Christianity: A Homicide Detective Investigates the Claims of the Gospels (Pages 47-50)

Were the disciples delusional?

This proposal fails to explain the _____ and only accounts for the resurrection experiences at first glance. (Page 47)

Were the disciples fooled by an imposter?

While this explanation accounts for the resurrection observations and transformed apostles, it requires an additional set of _____ (other than the apostles who were later fooled) to accomplish the task of stealing the body. (Page 49)

This explanation also fails to account for the _____ or _____ of Jesus. (Page 50)

Case Making Course Session 15 (Investigating the Resurrection) - Did the Disciples Hallucinate the Resurrection or were they Fooled?

The apostles hallucinated the resurrection.

But how do you explain the group hallucinations? There were multiple eyewitnesses at the same time such as:

The _____ disciples

The women at the tomb

The disciples at the sea

The disciples _____ Thomas

The disciples _____ Thomas

The disciples at the mountain

The disciples at the _____

The 500 eyewitnesses

If you were just imagining that Jesus rose from the grave, you could just run to the tomb, but the tomb is _____.

The apostles were fooled by an imposter.

But there is no reasonable imposter _____ and the post-resurrection appearances are too _____.
