Summarize and organize the evidence usefully.

My lists aren't arbitrary; they're _____
_____ and _____. (Page 117)

Start collecting the _____ so you can make the case later. (Page 122)

That's the key to good summaries. _____

Add to the case evidentially.

Christian authors weren't the only people who wrote about Jesus. Over the years, many _____ _____ added to the evidential case for Christianity. Once you start looking _____ the Christian "casebook" you'll be amazed at what you find. (Page 130)

The _____ of the Bible is consistent with and confirmed by the natural revelation of the world surrounding us. The case made from inside the Christian “casebook” is made even stronger by the evidence we find outside the book. The evidence we observe in _____ (including the scientific evidence) is not opposed to the God described in special revelation. In fact, the evidence points to the existence of God. (Page 141)
